

Career Aspirations of Haitian Secondary Students- Learning Assessment

Multiple Choice

1. Which of these was not a factor influencing career choices of Haitian students?
 - a. Social status
 - b. Moving to the United States
 - c. Land ownership
 - d. Someone they know in that field
2. Haitian students interviewed expected to obtain their desired career.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. What percentage of schools were privately run in Haiti?
 - a. 30%
 - b. 70%
 - c. 90%
 - d. 100%
4. Adults interviewed were concerned with educated students' _____
 - a. Desire to move out of Haiti
 - b. Lack of ambition
 - c. Inability to find jobs
 - d. Disinterest in academics
5. Guidance Counselors generally need at least a _____
 - a. High school diploma
 - b. Graduate degree
 - c. Bachelor's degree
 - d. Professional certification

Open-Ended

1. What kind of activities could a counselor do to introduce students to different career fields?

2. What are the possible challenges of being overqualified for a job?

Career Aspirations of Haitian Secondary Students- Learning Assessment KEY

Multiple Choice

1. Which of these was not a factor influencing career choices of Haitian students?
 - a. Social status
 - b. Moving to the United States
 - c. Land ownership
 - d. Someone they know in that field
2. Haitian students interviewed expected to obtain their desired career.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. What percentage of schools were privately run in Haiti?
 - a. 100%
 - b. 30%
 - c. 70%
 - d. 90%
4. Adults interviewed were concerned with educated students' _____
 - a. Desire to move out of Haiti
 - b. Lack of ambition
 - c. Inability to find jobs
 - d. Disinterest in academics
5. Guidance Counselors generally need at least a _____
 - a. High school diploma
 - b. Graduate degree
 - c. Bachelor's degree
 - d. Professional certification

Open-Ended

1. What kind of activities could a counselor do to introduce students to different career fields?

Answers will vary

2. What are the possible challenges of being overqualified for a job?

Answers will vary