

Undergraduate Newsletter

November 12, 2015

In This Issue

- FIVS 123
- Ag Ed Intern Wanted
- NUTR 222
- HIST 376
- Plant Sciences Symposium
- Minor in Latino/a Studies
- Graduate Recruiting Day
- Leadership Panel

Contact Us

<http://alec.tamu.edu>

Follow the Department

FIVS 123 - Forensic Investigations offered Spring 2015

This 3 credit hour, web-based course currently meets the Life and Physical Sciences Core Curriculum Area for students in the Fall 2014 Catalog. It is open to ALL majors, and non-science based majors are highly encouraged to enroll.

Agricultural Education Intern Wanted

Life in Stride Riding Academy, College Station

Spring 2015

Local Western Riding Academy is looking for an intern to coordinate and run weekend birthday parties and occasional holiday parties. Must have some horse experience, excellent customer service, enjoys children and interested in event planning. Must be able to work on weekends and have references. Please contact Kate at party@lifeinstride.org if interested. Pay is commission based.

NUTR 222 – Nutrition for Health and Health Care

Now a 3 hour Core Science in the TAMU Core Curriculum open to all majors - offered ONLINE!

The Department of Nutrition and Food Science has moved! Find us now in Cater-Mattil.

(see <http://aggiemap.tamu.edu/?Bldg=1503>)

HIST 376 – Great Scientists in History offered Spring 2015

Tuesday 5:30-8:20 p.m.

Humanities credit!

Readings will include: Galileo Galilei, Isaac Newton, Michael Faraday, Charles Darwin, Gregor Mendel, Marie Curie, Albert Einstein, Enrico Fermi, and Francis Crick.

Plant Sciences Poster Symposium

The Horticulture Graduate Student Council and MEPS Student Council are hosting a PLANT SCIENCES POSTER SYMPOSIUM on December 4th from 3-5PM in the atrium of HFSB. Registration and poster abstract submission closes midnight, Thursday, November 27th, 2014.

Prizes will be awarded to first, second and third winners!

Click here to read more and register: <http://hortsciences.tamu.edu/hort-grad-council-poster-competition/>

New Minor in Latino/a and Mexican-American Studies

The university is launching a new Latino/Mexican-American Studies (LMAS) interdepartmental minor, being housed in the Sociology Department.

To declare, contact a Sociology Dept. Advisor.

Jennifer Runnels jrunnels@tamu.edu or Eliza Bitter lizabstar@tamu.edu

Graduate Recruiting Day

The College of Medicine's Office of Graduate Studies will be hosting a Graduate Recruiting Day on Saturday, November 22nd at the HWY 47 TAMU HSC Campus. Please see the attached flyer for more information.

We currently offer a PhD in Medical Science with concentrations in the following:

- v Biochemistry
- v Cell and Molecular Biology
- v Cardiovascular and Lymphatic Biology
- v Neuroscience
- v Microbial & Molecular Pathogenesis
- v Clinical and Translational Science
- v Space Life Science

Please contact Amanda Watkins at watkins-borths@medicine.tamhsc.edu for more information.

Leadership Panel

The Leadership and Service Center within the Department of Student Activities is hosting a leadership panel of alumni, faculty, and staff on November 13 focusing on how one's undergraduate experience can be best utilized to achieve post-graduation success.

For more information:

Waylon Hastings | Graduate Assistant: Leadership & Service Center

Department of Student Activities | Texas A&M University

ph: 979.458.1026 | whastings@stuact.tamu.edu