

Undergraduate Newsletter

November 5, 2014

In This Issue

- AOLP applications
- GRE Prep
- Equine Internship
- Agricultural Education Internship
- Sustainability Internship
- Dance Appreciation Course
- Landscape Plant Materials Course
- Personal Finance Course
- Forensic Investigations Course

Contact Us

<http://alec.tamu.edu>

Follow the Department

AOLP applications

The Aggie Orientation Leader Program (AOLP) is excited to announce that applications for Orientation Leader are available from October 27 until November 12 at <http://aolp.tamu.edu>.

An Orientation Leader (OL) is a student volunteer who assists in a variety of programs during summer New Student Conferences to help new Aggies transition into college life. Orientation Leaders seek to create an atmosphere that minimizes anxiety, promotes a positive attitude, and stimulates excitement for learning in each new Aggie.

For more information, attend one of the following Informationals:

October 29 @ 7pm in Rudder 410

November 3 @ 7pm in Rudder 308

November 5 @ 7pm in Rudder 410

You can also attend a Social:

November 6 @ 7pm in Rudder 510

November 11 @ 7pm in Rudder 601

Learn more and apply at <http://aolp.tamu.edu>. If you have any questions, please email aolp@tamu.edu.

GRE Prep Class

You can take a free GRE test that will give you the most accurate score possible outside of the actual test.

The next GRE Prep class for Aggies is starting Nov. 15. Sign up now to reserve your seat and learn everything you need to know about the GRE including...

- How schools use (and don't use) your scores
- The best techniques to conquer the verbal and math sections
- Simple tips to maximize your math score
- Every math concept I've ever seen tested on the GRE
- The easiest way to memorize large amounts of vocabulary as quickly as possible

Find out more here; <http://bit.ly/1tjbbm8>

NEXT CLASS

--Saturday, November 15th, 2014

--8 AM to 5 PM

--one-hour lunch break

--Near the A&M campus

Click here for the detailed information about the GRE Prep course (<http://bit.ly/1tjbbm8>) including future classes, course details, pricing, and information about private tutoring.

You can take a free GRE test that will give you the most accurate score possible outside of the actual test. Find out more here. <http://bit.ly/1tjbbm8>

Students can sign up here. <http://bit.ly/1tjbbm8>

Byler Performance Equine Internship

Byler Performance Equine in Bellville, Texas needs to fill a spot for an internship in the Spring semester. They provide conditioning and post surgery rehabilitation for horses. It is a 6 month long paid internship working Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and two Saturdays 8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. each month. They are willing to work with class schedule and it can count for course credit.

Skills Needed:

- Knowledge of horse handling
- Maintain upkeep of equine barn
- Computer skills
- Business and communication skills

Will learn how to:

- Swim horses
- Administer shots and IV's
- Laser units for physical therapy
- Hydrotherapy

Please submit a resume and references, if any, at bernad1@aol.com and feel free to contact Kimmi Byler, the owner, at 979-865-2553 and visit their website at horseswim.com.

Sustainability Internship

The Office of Sustainability is searching for Spring 2015 interns to help increase awareness and education about the growing field of sustainability and every day sustainable practices. Sustainability encompasses environmental, economic, and social aspects, and encourages the use of critical thinking skills to come up with long term solutions to societies biggest problems. Sustainability's interdisciplinary approach to problem solving makes it perfect for students in any undergraduate major on campus.

Application materials (Internship Application, Resume, Cover Letter) are due by Noon on Friday, November 14th, 2014 and should be sent to sustainability@tamu.edu or dropped off at the General Services Complex, Suite 1801.

Agricultural Education Intern Wanted

Life in Stride Riding Academy, College Station, Spring 2015

Local Western Riding Academy is looking for an intern to coordinate and run weekend birthday parties and occasional holiday parties. Must have some horse experience, excellent customer service, enjoys children and interested in event planning. Must be able to work on weekends and have references. Please contact Kate at party@lifestride.org if interested. Pay is commission based.

Dance Appreciation Course

The Department of Health & Kinesiology is offering DCED 202 Dance Appreciation Spring 2015. This course counts as a Creative Arts course as well as an International & Cultural Diversity course. Section 599 will be offered during the regular Spring 2015 (Jan. 20th – May 12th) semester as a web-based section and is open to all students. Section 700 will be offered during the Winter Minimester (Jan. 2nd – Jan. 16th) as a Distance Education section and is open to all students.

Landscape Plant Materials Course

The landscape plant materials course HORT 308 will be offered this next spring semester. For those of you who joined us to study trees and shrubs in the landscape might be interested in checking out the rest of the plants, for example tropicals, xeric plants, groundcovers, ornamental grasses, vines, herbaceous perennials, seasonal annuals, and wetland and watergarden plants. Hope to see many of you in the spring! No Friday lectures, 3 credit hours.

Personal Finance Course

The in Spring 2015. The course has a class limit of 68 students and is open to undergraduate students in all majors. FINC 201 is currently scheduled to meet MW 2:20 – 3:35 in 109 Wehner. Marilynn Hood is the instructor.

Forensic Investigations Course (FIVS 123)

This 3 credit hour, web-based course currently meets the Life and Physical Sciences Core Curriculum Area for students in the Fall 2014 Catalog. Enroll to learn the real science behind crime scene investigation. It is open to ALL majors, and non-science based majors are highly encouraged to enroll.